This list of leading Detroit area computer companies is an approximate compilation of the leading such companies that research, design, manufacture or invent equipment or software, plus companies that provide sophisticated computer services such as systems design, programming and information retrieval. It is not a complete listing but the most comprehensive available and covers Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and Livingston counties. Companies based elsewhere are ranked by their revenue in the five-county area and not by total revenue. Unless noted, the companies provided the information. NA = not available.
